

ARE RESTING
AFTER RIOTSeven Killed and 36 Wounded
in Mexico City

WAS INTENSE EXCITEMENT

De La Barra Announced That President
Diaz Would Resign This Afternoon
That Provisional Government
Would Take Charge.

Mexico City, May 25.—After the intense excitement of last night, this city was in comparative quiet this morning. The official statement of the casualties resulting from the bloody rioting that swept over the city yesterday and last night places the dead at seven and the wounded at thirty-six. Several of the wounded are expected to die. A large force of police was on duty today. Foreign Minister De La Barra issued an official statement this morning that President Diaz and Vice President Corral would resign this afternoon and that the provisional government would thereupon assume authority. The riot of last night was started when spectators from the galleries of the chamber of deputies heard the announcement that the two would not resign that day.

Until nine o'clock the mob encountered no opposition and apparently little restriction was necessary. Shouting vivas for Madero, they paraded the streets, but always in an orderly fashion except for the noise. Occasional instances of vandalism were immediately condemned by the thousands of marching men who joined in shouts of "order, order."

At 8:30 it appeared that the crowd was dispersing. The main body had been broken into smaller groups, but at that time some of these had grown more demonstrative in the big plaza in front of the palace and the police determined that the time had come for drastic measures to be taken.

The shouting gesticulating mass of humanity was warned to move on, but a confidence born of better treatment early in the evening caused them to receive with derision the order of the police. Again they were told to disperse and again no attention was paid to the order. Quickly their shouts of ridicule were turned into cries of anguish, for the police and the soldiers fired. The living stumbled in a mad rush over the bodies of the dead and wounded. The narrow streets leading from the Zocateo were jammed with fleeing men and women.

For a few minutes the guns of the government were still, but a regathering at street corners of the enraged and frightened partisans of Madero resulted in another order to fire at will. Sharper and longer now came the shooting. The mob fled; but the troops had not yet intimidated the rioters to the point where they were willing to submit. The force of the iron hand was weakening and despite the death it had brought, the rioters refused to do more than scatter in miniature mobs, each shouting for Madero and yelling for the downfall of the present government.

Almost at the moment of the beginning of the demonstration American Ambassador Wilson entered the palace to pay his respects to the president, but the president was too sick to receive any visitors. The call lasted 20 minutes. When the ambassador emerged he found troops lined up in front of the palace and mounted police at both ends of the block.

The troops which did the shooting reinforced the police later. The shouts of the mob crying "viva Madero" and "death of Diaz" could plainly be heard by the ambassador although they did not penetrate so far as the president's bed chamber, save when some careless servant allowed the door to remain open for a moment. The ambassador's motor car moved with difficulty. During its progress at different times grimy sheets were thrust inside and the diplomat was saluted with "long live the ambassador."

THREE MEN SHOT
FOLLOWING QUARREL

Brown Palace Hotel in Denver Scene of Trouble—Woman Probable Cause of Triple Shooting—Victims
Will Recover.

Denver, Col., May 25.—A quarrel, presumably over a woman, resulted in a triple shooting in the Brown Palace hotel this morning. Frank H. Henwood, a traveling agent of New York, shot S. L. Von Puhl, a St. Louis wine agent, J. W. Atkinson, a Colorado Springs contractor, and G. F. Copeland, a Victor mining man. They will recover.

"The New England Lines." The railroad lines largely covering New England, now in control of the New Haven company, are being more and more referred to in railroad circles and beyond as "the New England lines." This is as it should be. Some day we shall doubtless see that lettering on all the cars of the combined systems—Springfield, Mass., Republican.

Futile Pretence. "It is a great mistake for a man to pretend to be rich."

"Have you tried it?" "Yes. I thought my pose would secure me invitations in society. All it brought was a bunch of Black Hand letters."—Washington Star.

Somewhere Else. "Where am I?" the invalid exclaimed, waking from the long delirium of fever and feeling the comfort that loving hands had supplied. "Where am I—in heaven?"

"No dear," cooed his wife, "I am still with you."—Toledo Blade.

START SEARCH
FOR CASHIERErnest D. Hamilton Missing
From Southbridge, Mass.

WAS LAST SEEN TUESDAY

On That Day He Left Southbridge With
Intention of Going to Greenfield,
Where He Formerly Worked—His Accounts Said to Be Correct.

Southbridge, Mass., May 25.—A search of western Massachusetts is being made today for Ernest D. Hamilton, cashier of the Southbridge National bank, who disappeared from this place last Tuesday. Until six weeks ago, Mr. Hamilton was teller in the Franklin County National bank at Greenfield. The officials of both these institutions say that the missing man's accounts are correct. Mr. Hamilton left here last Tuesday, supposedly for his former home in Greenfield. When it was discovered that he had not arrived at Greenfield a search was instituted. Friends of Mr. Hamilton believe that the man's mind is affected and that he is wandering about the country.

WOMAN WITH HATBOX.
Only Clue to Mystery Surrounding Fin of Infant's Body.

Rutland, May 25.—Aside from the fact that Conductor Paul Fish of the local street railway company remembers carrying from Rutland to and from Castleton Sunday night a woman having a hatbox in her hand. State's Attorney B. L. Safford and the local sheriff department have absolutely no clue as to the identity of the person who is responsible for the death of the week-old infant whose body was found in a tightly shut hatbox near the Charles Griswold place east of Castleton Monday afternoon.

Yesterday Mr. Stafford was in consultation with Conductor Fish and this afternoon Sheriff E. C. Fish and four deputies were gathered at the office. Every possible effort will be made to run down the inhuman person who left the helpless baby to smother in full exposure of Monday's terrible heat. The case is a particularly difficult one to work out. Vital statistics will not aid materially in unravelling the mystery as there is in this county, like every other community a certain few doctors who will not co-operate with the state authorities by reporting births which take place under peculiar circumstances. A margin of 10 days is given for reporting births before any negligence on the part of the physician can be charged.

Conductor Fish states that the woman in question boarded the 9:40 car out of Rutland Sunday night. She got off near the Griswold place in Castleton and when the same car made the return trip from Fair Haven she again got on to it at a point some distance nearer Rutland, carrying no box.

INSPECTING RUTLAND R. R.

President Mellen Comes to Vermont to See Properties.

Rutland, May 25.—On his trip over the Rutland lines yesterday President Charles S. Mellen of the New York, New Haven & Hartford system, who arrived in this city on a special train at 11:30 o'clock, did not make any stop in Rutland, but was joined here by Rutland railroad officials and left about 30 minutes later for Chatham, N. Y.

Mr. Mellen, accompanied by B. Campbell of New Haven, vice-president of the New Haven road, T. E. Byrnes of Boston, vice-president of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine roads, and William F. Berry of Boston, vice-president of the Boston & Maine, on their way from Boston yesterday morning inspected facilities of the road at Ballows Falls. Yesterday afternoon they inspected the Bennington and Chatham facilities.

The Rutland railroad officials, who accompanied President Mellen and his vice-presidents were: General Manager George T. Jarvis, Freight Agent George Cassidy, Supt. S. S. Colton, Trainmaster S. R. Kramer and the road's attorney, Edwin W. Lawrence.

HOME MISSIONARY UNION.

Is Being Held at Middlebury Under
Leadership of Mrs. W. J. Van Patten.

Middlebury, May 25.—The annual session convention of the Woman's Home Missionary union opened at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon. The meeting is under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. Van Patten of Burlington. The afternoon and evening sessions were both well attended and the convention will continue through today. The session opened with the reading of a message from the national convention conducted by Mrs. Edwin D. Burdett of Rutland. The evening session opened with an organ recital by Mrs. G. D. Miner assisted by Miss Grace Vittum, after which a meeting of the women's board of missions was held with Mrs. C. H. Stevens of St. Johnsbury presiding. Religious exercises were led by the Rev. Samuel Rose of Cornwall. The session came to a close with an address on "Relief Work After the Adna Massacre," by Dr. F. D. Shepard of Albany, Turkey.

REMANDED FOR SENTENCE

Daniel J. O'Reilly Found Guilty of Receiving Stolen Property.

New York, May 25.—Daniel J. O'Reilly, former assistant district attorney and well-known as a criminal lawyer in connection with cases of Harry K. Thaw and Nan Patterson, was found guilty yesterday afternoon of receiving stolen goods. The jury was out only an hour and a quarter. O'Reilly was remanded for sentence.

WAS FOUND GUILTY
OF MANSLAUGHTERFrank H. Boyd, Who Killed John Potter at Wilmington to Pay Penalty of Lesser Crime Than Charged With.

Brattleboro, May 25.—After four hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of state vs. Frank Boyd of Wilmington charged with the murder of John Potter of that town April 13, returned a verdict of manslaughter for which the punishment is imprisonment of from one to 20 years.

The case was given to the jury at 12:30 yesterday afternoon and the jury returned its verdict at 4:30. Attorney General J. G. Sargent moved for immediate sentence but the court denied the motion.

The attorney general spent two hours at the morning session in summing up for the state and contended that the prosecution had proven murder in the first degree. He claimed that Boyd could have escaped from Potter and that the defense has not established its claim of self-defense. Judge E. L. Waterman read his charge to the jury and it was phrased in clear-cut language and very easily explained the difference between the different degrees of murder.

MONTPELIER CITY COUNCIL.

Many Matters Considered, But None of Much Importance.

The Montpelier city council held along session last night and much time was spent in talking over matters aside from the usual routine business.

The Consolidated Lighting company submitted a bid for street lighting and F. M. Corry of the Corry, Devitt & Frost company said that the present rate for lighting was reasonable and if the new bid was for the same price his company would prefer not to enter the contest at all, as they wished to build up the house lighting part of the business.

John Jurras gave a permit to build an office on Granite street, near his stone shed, but the building would project into the street several feet and after talking over both sides of the question, the council decided that it had no authority to grant the permit and refused it.

L. D. Taft appeared for the purpose of having the city keep open a driveway at the rear of the Lawrence building, butchers were in favor of closing the present driveway, making it over into a lawn and building a drive on the other side. The question was left to the street committee to report. A protest was raised against the billboards on the Lawrence building. Mr. Blanchard has agreed to remove these when requested and the council voted to ask their removal at once.

The water committee was given power to act regarding the furnishing of a house at Berlin pond for the use of H. B. Wedge, the watchman. The W. C. T. U. has asked for a city playground and curfew law and the matter will be taken up at the next council meeting.

SWITCHMAN KILLED
BY PASSENGER TRAINCharles O'Neill, Aged 60 Years, Hit by Midnight Train at White River
Junction—Leaves Wife and Six Children.

White River Junction, May 26.—Charles O'Neill, aged about 60 years, a switchman, was killed by the midnight passenger train from Springfield last night. He leaves a wife and six children. His body was little injured.

LIFE SAVED BY SHOE TAPS.

Unusual Means of Protection in a West
Rutland Accident.

Rutland, May 25.—A pair of shoes heavily tapped probably saved the life of David Johnson of West Rutland, who was seriously injured in the finishing shop of the Vermont Marble company at the west side yesterday morning. As he was, his left leg was broken between the thigh and knee near the hip. It was fractured transversely.

Johnson was at work selecting a slab of marble from a large pile. It is customary to place an iron bar at the side of the slabs, using this for support in getting to the center of the pile. Six large, heavy slabs had been placed so they depended on the iron bar for support, when this slipped and Mr. Johnson was pinned under the hundreds of pounds of stone. He fell sideways and in so doing, his thick taps partly saved him from the brunt of the blow. His left leg, however, was badly smashed and there is a possibility of its having to be amputated. The man was taken to the Proctor hospital.

CHILD DRANK POTASH.
Took Two Teaspoonfuls and Died in Short Time.

Burlington, May 25.—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trombley of 30 Cedar street died at one o'clock yesterday morning as the result of drinking a solution of potash. The little boy, a year and a half old, got hold of a glass of potash, used by Mr. Trombley in washing some clothes, and drank two teaspoonfuls. Dr. P. J. McKenney was summoned and with Dr. P. E. Mcweeney did everything possible. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at St. Joseph's church, with interment in Mount Calvary cemetery.

PATIENT BECAME VIOLENT.

W. W. Tyler of Randolph to Be Treated at Waterbury Asylum.

Randolph, May 25.—W. W. Tyler, who has been suffering from hardening of the arteries for several months, has developed a form of insanity which makes him violent and requiring the services of three men to control him. He will be taken to Waterbury at once for care and treatment.

At a hearing before Judge Stow and State's Attorney Wilson of Chelsea, Arthur Watrous was found to be insane and was taken back to Waterbury by the assistant supervisor of the institution to remain for a longer time for treatment.

FOUND CORPSE
IN THE LOCKUPEugene Danforth Had Been Arrested the Night Before

BY AN OFFICER IN BETHEL

When Officer Went to Lockup the Next
Morning the Fellow, Who Was Taken
With Danforth Reported His Blief That Other Was Dead.

Bethel, May 25.—A man by the name of Eugene Danforth was, with one other, arrested by Officer John Wheeler on Tuesday night, and the two were taken to the lockup for the night. On the visit of the officer yesterday morning, the companion reported he thought Danforth was dead, as he had spoken to the fellow and had received no reply. Upon investigation, it was found to be true, that Danforth had died some time during the night. His brother, Charles Danforth, of South Royalton, was at once summoned to take charge of the body.

Both Danforth and his companion are said to have been intoxicated at the time of their arrest.

HE GAVE HIS LIFE
IN BEHALF OF SCIENCEDr. Cyrus G. Pringle, Noted Botanist, Died Today in Burlington—Was Famous For Collections in Mexico.

Burlington, May 25.—An expedition into the country in search of botanic specimens a week ago resulted in the death here, today, of Prof. Cyrus Guernsey Pringle, curator of the herbarium at the university of Vermont and one of the best known botanists in the United States. Prof. Pringle caught cold on the trip for flowers, and the cold developed into pneumonia.

During the hours of delirium in the latter part of his illness he talked much about Mexico, where the greater part of his life work was done. He had been planning for some weeks to conclude his collecting in Mexico and begin work in South America, although he had reached the age of 73. A year ago he fell on the ice at Mallett's bay, where he had gone to visit a man who was collecting specimens for him, since which time he had been in very poor health. A week ago Sunday, Dr. Pringle walked nine miles in Windsor, and from that time his final illness was dated.

Prof. Pringle was a native of Charlotte, this state, having been born on May 6, 1838, the son of George and Louisa (Harris) Pringle. He was educated in the schools of Vermont and Canada and was honored by doctor's degree from Middlebury college and the university of Vermont. For some years he collected specimens for the American Museum of Natural History in New York, then for Harvard university, being then appointed curator of the herbarium at the state university, to which he had given many specimens of great value. During his Mexican investigations he placed large collections in fifty or more herbaria of the world. He also was a frequent contributor to natural science publications.

HAS GOOD PLACE.

Burns R. Eastman, a Recent Graduate of Goddard Seminary.

The Burlington Free Press of to-day has the following to say about a young man who was recently graduated from Goddard seminary:

"Burns R. Eastman of the senior class in the university of Vermont college of medicine, who was recently offered a position by the Western General hospital of Montreal, has accepted the opening, and will begin his duties there on July 15. He has received an appointment as internist, and will have excellent opportunities for post-graduate study. He is to work under Dr. Wilson, who is a recognized authority upon X-ray work and radiography. He will also have the advantages of experience under some of the best surgeons in Montreal. Mr. Eastman, whose home is in Woodsville, N. H., is a brother of Oliver N. Eastman, who was graduated here in 1908, and who is now connected with the Mary Fletcher hospital."

WORKMEN OBJECTED.
To Having Overseer Stand Over Them
and Deduct for Time Lost.

Burlington, May 25.—The trouble which kept some of the force of the Shepard & Morse Lumber company's mill from working part of last week and Monday afternoon, was amicably settled yesterday, when the cause of complaint of the men was removed. Mr. Shepard of the company was summoned here to look into the matter by E. W. Parkhill, the manager. The workmen claim that the cause of the trouble was the presence of a man from Boston who stood over them every moment and deducted any time they lost during the day from their wages at the end of the week.

ATTACKED BY EAGLE.
Aviator in Paris to Madrid Race Had to Shoot It.

Madrid, May 25.—Misfortune met all the three aviators on their flight to the Spanish capital from St. Sebastian, which is the most difficult stage of the Paris to Madrid race. All, however, reported this afternoon, trying to continue their flight toward this city. The aviators who started were Gilbert, Garros and Vedrine. When eighteen miles from Victoria, it was reported that Gilbert was attacked by an eagle and was forced to defend himself by shooting at the bird with a revolver.

MRS. LUNDY CONTESTS
Suit for Divorce Brought on Ground of Intolerable Severity.

In county court this forenoon, the ejectment case of Morrison vs. Thompson was finished and the motion to bring forward the case and have the judgment, secured by the defendant, struck off was dismissed.

The divorce case of Hodges Lundy and Mary Lundy is being heard to-day, and is contested by Mrs. Lundy. Mr. Lundy brings suit on the grounds of intolerable severity. He testified that his wife had him arrested several times without sufficient cause. Once he said he pleaded guilty rather than have his wife brought into court and another time she withdrew a complaint she had made against him. The last time she had him arrested was for adultery, and the case was dismissed in county court after the woman in the case had been acquitted. Ezra Jewett was granted a divorce from his wife, Amy Jewett, on the ground of wilful desertion.

The case of Flannery against Harvey and O'Brien has been left to an arbitrator.

COULDN'T PAY ALIMONY.
Because His Wife Had Injunction
Against His Mortgaging Quarry.

When the case of George Libersont, for contempt in failing to pay alimony, to Julia Libersont, was heard in Washington county court yesterday afternoon, the court declared that the case was one of technical contempt rather than wilful contempt, as it was shown by Libersont that he was unable to pay $12 a week for the support of his wife and two minor children as she had an injunction served on him, restraining him from mortgaging his quarry lands in Barre town, and he cannot operate his quarry without funds. It was agreed then that a receiver be appointed to operate the quarry.

HELD UNDER $5,000 BAIL.

Enrico Brogini Is Accused of Libel by Mrs. S. Comolli.

Enrico Brogini was arrested yesterday in a libel suit for $5,000, brought by Mrs. S. Comolli by reason of an alleged libelous letter said to have been sent by Brogini to the husband of the plaintiff. The case is returnable in county court, and Brogini was held under $5,000 bail. As yet the respondent has not been able to furnish the bail and is being kept at the local police station for the present. He will probably be taken to the county jail to-day if he does not secure bonds. S. Hollister Jackson is counsel for Mrs. Comolli.

WANT LOCAL RABBI.

Barre Hebrews Ask a New York Man
To Come and Take Charge.

A largely attended meeting of local Hebrews was held at the home of M. Gottler of Seminary street last evening to consider the idea of securing a resident rabbi for Barre. At the present time there are eleven Hebrew families residing in the city, and a feeling has been prevalent for a year past that a leader for the flock is necessary. The sentiment of last night's gathering seemed to favor some action of this nature and a communication, addressed to a New York rabbi was drawn up and dispatched as a result.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

Spaulding Boys Said They Would Play,
Goddard Said No.

Arrangements for a Goddard-Spaulding baseball game at the campus this afternoon are still hanging fire. Members of the high school team, who were to line up against the seminary players yesterday afternoon had the weather permitted, were confident that the game would be pulled off to-day and notices to that effect were scattered broadcast about the school building. When approached this afternoon, the seminary players stated that they had been refused permission to play and had no reason to give.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Mrs. A. Cornon is passing a few days with friends in Burlington.

Joshua Bailey of Williamstown was a business visitor in the city to-day.

Joseph Long is spending a few days at his home in Leonistier, Mass.

William Cook of St. Johnsbury is spending a few days with his son, James H. Cook, of Merchant street.

Charles Galaise went to St. Johnsbury last night to witness the exemplification of the third degree in the Knights of Columbus.

I am going to the Bijou. You are going to the Bijou. Everyone is going to the Bijou to-night to see I. M. P. picture, "Adrift." It is certainly some picture.

H. H. Murphy has resigned his position as night clerk at the City hotel, and left this afternoon for his home in Plattsburg, N. Y. His place is filled by E. L. Wallen of Middlesex.

The Hedding male chorus will meet Friday evening at the Methodist church. Meeting Barre council, No. 6, to-night at 8 o'clock sharp. Make an effort to be present. Per order of captain.

Wednesday arrivals at the Hotel Otis were as follows: F. W. Nichols, Boston; A. Hayward, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ball, Somerville, Mass.; G. E. McCurdy, Boston; Louis H. O'Brien, Portland, Me.; A. C. Clark, Boston; John Henderson, New London, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Johnson, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. A. Hewart, Burlington; F. L. White, St. Johnsbury.

Arrivals at the City hotel yesterday and to-day were registered as follows: H. R. Conner, St. Johnsbury; J. H. Faght, Burlington; N. Brown, J. B. Ellis, Boston; Mrs. V. Hudson, Marshfield; C. E. Doolittle, Ticonderoga, N. Y.; J. A. Rogers, St. Albans; J. G. Schumel, New York City; E. J. McNelly, F. G. Dodge, G. F. Graves, C. F. Eldridge, T. W. Keane, W. J. Cook, Milford, Mass.; W. B. Nason, Boston; J. R. Reed, Burlington.

Next Sunday, May 28th, the annual Union Memorial service for the G. A. R. will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church.

The funeral will be held at the house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. E. Reaisted, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate and the burial will take place in Hope cemetery.

WILL CLOSE
ON SUNDAYSMail Carriers' Windows in Barre Postoffice

ORDER IS JUST ISSUED

But General Delivery Window Will Be Open for a Half Hour in the Forenoon and Mail Will Be Sorted
for the Box-Holders.

Beginning next Sunday, the carriers' windows at the Barre postoffice will not be opened at any time on Sundays this order having been issued by the postoffice department at Washington following a test of the sentiment in the community. Heretofore, the carriers' windows have been open from 10 to 11 a. m. for the delivery of mail. The change is in accord with a movement that is extending over the country particularly throughout the West. Several of the larger places in Vermont have already adopted the system notably Burlington and Rutland.

But while the carriers' windows will be closed and no city delivery mail will be routed, provision is made for opening the general delivery window for a half hour for the delivery of transient mail. That half hour is from 9:30 to 10 a. m. Business men who desire their mail regular on Sundays, can rent boxes since there will be Sunday delivery to box holders.

Postmaster Bisbee furnishes the following outline of the new order in the following:

"Editor of The Times: 'By direction of the postoffice department the following Sunday schedules will be put in force at this office on Sunday May 28th, and thereafter until further notice: 'Collections will be made from street boxes; and mail will be dispatched according to present schedules. 'Mail that arrives is to be sorted; and that for the general delivery and boxes in the post offices will be put up for delivery and to be taken by box-holders. 'Special delivery mail will be delivered by messenger. 'The material changes are: The general delivery will be open from 9:30 to 10 o'clock a. m., instead of from 10 to 11 o'clock as heretofore. 'The carriers' windows will not be opened; and the city delivery and rural delivery mails will not be routed up for delivery. 'Business men who desire their mail regularly on Sundays will be allowed to rent boxes at the full rates established by the department, in which to receive their Sunday mail; and their mail can be delivered by carrier on other days of the week. 'Edward A. Bisbee, Postmaster.'"

BARRE'S OLDEST IS 96.

Alvin F. Smith is Remarkably Well for Man of His Age.

Alvin F. Smith, Barre's oldest resident and as far as known the oldest person in Washington county, to-day reached his 96th birthday and save for a slight stomach trouble, which has been bothering him for several months, is still strong and active, and he confidently expects to live many more years. He observed his anniversary to-day quietly at the home of his niece, Mrs. Dan A. Perry, who resides on the Montpelier road. His sister, Mrs. Mary L. Newton of Montpelier, who is 80 years of age, also spent the day there with him.

Mr. Smith was born in Brookfield, May 25, 1815, the oldest of a family of nine children, of whom he and his sister, Mrs. Newton, are the only survivors. His parents' names were Adin and Lydia Waterman Smith. His grandfather came to Vermont from Connecticut and settled in the town of Randolph where he was one of the first settlers. His grandfather served in the Revolutionary war and his father in the war of 1812. Four of Mr. Smith's brothers answered the call for volunteers in the Civil war, and only one of them ever came back. His oldest son, Emory L. Smith, Barre's first mayor also served in this war.

Mr. Smith was twice married. His first wife was Susan Lewis of Cabot, whom he married in Northfield in 1841. She died in 1854. Six children four boys and two girls, were born to them; Emory L., of Barre; Sanford S., of Barre; Amelia, deceased; Julia, who resides in Iowa and Edwin F., of Barre. He was again married in 1861 in Williamstown to Irena M. Williams. She died in 1881. For the last 18 years Mr. Smith has made his home at 19 West street, with his son, E. L. Smith, and is a well known figure on the streets of the city, taking his daily walk and chatting with old friends and acquaintances.

ALWAYS RESIDED IN BARRE.
Archie Durfee Died Last Night, Having Been Ill Several Months.

Archie Durfee, a life long resident of Barre, died at 9:10 o'clock last evening at his home, 54 1/2 West street. He had been in poor health since Christmas, when he was obliged to give up work. Two weeks ago he was taken seriously ill and sank rapidly. Death resulted from Bright's disease. One sister, Mrs. J. L. Hamilton of St. Albans, and two brothers, George Durfee of this city and Bert Durfee of Concord, N. H., survive.

Mr. Durfee was born in Barre June 10, 1867, and had always lived here. He was a stonecutter by trade and up to the middle of last winter, he had been employed as a cutter by William Kennerly. For the past nine years, he had made his home with Mrs. E. Polonghini, where his death occurred. He was connected with the Baptist church.

The funeral will be held at the house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. E. Reaisted, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate and the burial will take place in Hope cemetery.
